

DR. FRANCIS C.
MONTGOMERY

Francis C. Montgomery was born July 7, 1892, at Heber City, Utah, son of Livingston Montgomery and Amelia Ann Clegg Montgomery. He completed the eighth grade at the old Central School, when Attawall Wootton was county superintendent, D. A. Broadbent was principal, and B. A. Fowler was teacher. A very close and thoroughly inspected examination was the order of the day for that graduation.

He was listed in Wasatch County's first regular accredited four-year graduating class of Wasatch High School in the year 1912.

Dr. Montgomery received a normal certificate from the University of Utah and taught school in Heber City two years. He married Dona Murdock, daughter of Joseph A. and Martha Fortie Murdock. Clayton and Dona had the following children: Elaine Montgomery (Jensen), Frances Montgomery (Cannon), Dr. Jay Montgomery, Monta Montgomery (Mack), Annette Montgomery (Bourne), and Dr. Steve Montgomery.

Dr. Montgomery received his doctor of dental surgery degree from the University of Southern California in 1917. He has practiced dentistry since that time at Heber City, except time out for an LDS mission to the Northern States and for army service. He was a private in the Medical Enlisted Reserve Corps in World War I, and served four years as a major and lieutenant colonel in World War II. He is now a retired colonel in the army of the United States. He is a member of the Central Utah Dental Assn., the Utah State Dental Assn. and the American Dental Assn. For his service to fellow dentists and by aiding the progress of dentistry in general through his teaching efforts in universities and dental seminars his name has been selected for inclusion in editions of Who's Who in American Dentistry. The doctor is a member of the International Pierre Fauchard Academy.

TATGE

Midway, Utah
August 24, 1943

DEAR HOME FOLKS:

There was a splendid atmosphere of quality about our fair this year. The exhibits at the high school were exceptional in their good taste.

At the Stock Show we heard two unscheduled talks on sheep that were interesting and greatly appreciated. Mr. Anderson of Spanish Fork told us about breeds of sheep, pointing out the difference in wool, size, etc. Mr. Baird of Heber talked about Caracul sheep. He told of their history and breeding. The talks were informal and highly informative.

The parade was a delight. Whoever thought to have our young boys carry the printed names of our men who have gone to war is a dramatists. What a thrill when the significance of those signs suddenly dawned on us.

By the way, a high percentage of our people are remiss about saluting the colors when they pass. That is too bad.

LETHE

Mrs. Lethe Coleman Tatge gave her first public reading in 1897 and since that time has constantly served the public as a reader, actress, lecturer and performer. During 1917 she gave programs with President Heber J. Grant for the Liberty Bond drives.

She lectured for the International Chautauqua Bureau of Calgary, Canada, the Ellison-White Bureau of Portland, Ore., the Swarthmore Bureau of Swarthmore, Penn., and the Associated Bureau of Topeka, Kansas.

In addition to dramatic activities in Midway, Mrs. Tatge has appeared in three recent film productions of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. These have been "How Near to the Angels," "Unto the Least of These," and "Until Death Do Us Part."

She has been a world traveler, lecturing in every state of the union, in Canada and Alaska before it became a state. She was selected as "Miss Utah" by the Business and Professional Women of Utah in 1927 and was a delegate to the National BPW convention in Portland, Maine.

Active in organizations of the Church, Mrs. Tatge has also been president of the Wasatch County Daughters of the Utah Pioneers for six years. Her name is included in "Who's Who Among American Women," and she has been featured in the "Citizen's Magazine," "National Business and Professional Women's Magazine," the "Relief Society Magazine," and "The Instructor." p633
